Examining Procedure, Section 213 04 Substance of Int rvi w must 8 Made of Rec rd A complete written statement as to the substance of any face-to-face or telephone interview with regard to an application must be made of record in the application, whether or not an agreement with the examiner was reached af the interview. PEING DATE BURGARANCHE, ALUERAN ለገርና ራርቶች ስቸናው የተጠ (b) In every instance where reconsideration is requested in Metable artificensies with an examined a compression statement of the examined at the interview as warranting favorable action must be filed by the applicant. An interview does not remove the necessity for response to Office action as specified in §§ 1.111,1.135. (35 U.S.C.132) § 1.2. Business to be transacted in writing. All business with the Patent or Trademark Office should be transacted in writing. The personal attendance of application of their attendance of application of their attendance of application of their attendance of their a The action of the Patent and Tredemark Office cannot be based exclusively on the written record in the Office II that record is itself incomplete through the failureto record the substance of interviews 10) this the responsibility of the applicant or the attorney or agent to make the substance of an interview of record in the application file, unless the examiner indicates he or she will do so. It is the examiner's responsibility to see that such a record is made and to correct material inaccuracies which bear directly on the question of patentability. INTERVIEW SUMMARY Examiners must complete a two-sheet carbon interleaf interview Summary Form for each interview held after January 1, 1978 where a matter of substance has been discussed during the interview by checking the appropriate boxes and filling in the blanks in neat handwritten form using a ball point pen. Discussions regarding only procedural matters, directed solely to restriction requirements for which interview recordation is otherwise provided for in Section 8.12.0.1 of the Masbat of Rataht Examining Procedure, or pointing out typographical errors or unreadable script in Office actions or the like, are excluded from the interview recordation procedures below. with the court The Interview Summary Form shall be given an appropriate paper number, placed in the right hand portion of the file, and listed on the "Contents" list on the file wropped the docket sade-ready particularly the file of the The Form provides for recordation of the following information: - Serial Number of the application Name of applicant

Name of examiner Exhibit chows or general actions builties and $(0.77)^{-1}$ ($(0.77)^{-1}$ - Type of Interview (personal or telephonic) Name of participant(s)) (applicant, attorney or agent, etc.) Адбастыет с и се насто с 🔀 черый инстирей 🏢 -An indication whether or not an exhibit was shown or a demonstration conducted -An Identification of the claims discussed - An identification of the specific prior art discussed
- An indication whether an agreement was reached and if so, a description of the general nature of the agreement (may be by attachment of a copy of amendments or claims agreed as being allowable). (Agreements as to allowability are tentative and do not restrict further action by the examiner to the contrary.) The signature of the examiner who conducted the interview - Names of other Patent and Trademark Office personnel present. · ., -The Form also contains a statement reminding the applicant of his responsibility to record the substance of the interview. It is desireable that the examiner orally remind the applicant of his obligation to record the substance of the interview in each case unless both applicant and examiner agree that the examiner will record same. Where the examiner agrees to record the substance of the interview or when it is adequately recorded on the Form or in an attachment to the Form, the examiner should check a box at the bottom of the Form intoming the applicant that he need not supplement the Form by submitting a separate record of the substance of the interview.

The should be noted, however, that the Interview Summary Form will not normally be considered a complete and proper recordation of the interview unless it includes, or is supplemented by the applicant of the examiner to include, all of the applicable terms required below concerning the expissance of the interview. A complete and proper recordation of the substance of any interview should include at least the following applicable items: 1) A brief description of the nature of any exhibit shown or any demonstration conducted, 2) an identification of the claims discussed. an identification of specific prior art discussed; 4) an identification of the principal proposed amendments of a substantive nature discussed, unless these are already described on the Interview Summary Form completed by the examiner. 5) a brief identification of the general thrust of the principal arguments presented to the examiner. The identification of arguments need not be lengthy or is elaborate. A verbatim or highly detailed description of the arguments is not required. The identification of the arguments is sufficient if the general nature. or thrust of the principal arguments made to the examiner can be understood in the context of the application file: Of course; the applicant may desige to emphasize and fully describe those arguments which he feels were or might be persuasive to the examiner, 6) a general indication of any other pertinent matters discussed, and 7) If appropriate, the general results or outcome of the interview unless already described in the Interview Stimmary Form completed by the examiner. 38.

Examiners are expected to carefully review the applicant's record of the substance of an interview. If the record is not complete or accurate, the examiner will give the applicant one month from the date of the notifying letter or the remainder of any period for response, whichever is longer, to complete the response and thereby avoid abandonment of the application (37 CFR-1-135(c)).

Examiner to Check for Accuracy

機械 计分别等级 化二十二

Section 1 Section

Applicant's surrougy of what took place at the interview should be carefully checked to determine the accuracy of any argument or statement attributed to the examiner during the interview. If there is an inaccuracy and it bears directly on the question of patentability, it should be pointed out in the next Office letter. If the claims are allowable for other reasons of record, the examiner should send a letter setting forth his or her version of the statement attributed to him. If the record is complete and accurate, the examiner should place the indication "interview record OK" on the paper recording the substance of the interview along with the date and the examiner's initials.
